I was greeted by a rude woman who said she owned the gallery. I inquired about bringing my daughter & some friends for a viewing for her 13th birthday. I was told NO even if 2 or 3 kids come in at a time and the rest wait outside. I felt discriminated and mistreated by this woman. She does not belong in Harlem. Do not support this gallery they are not interested in the community and its children. Exposure is everything!!! Why have this in Harlem and our children are not welcomed. I did not expect to be treated this way in Harlem.

There are so many things in Harlem that are not for the people of Harlem. I moved to Harlem to avoid being treated the way I was just treated!!!! I just stopped by this art gallery to inquire about setting up a gallery visit for my daughter and some friends for her 13th birthday. I cannot believe how rudely I was just treated by the owner. I said, "this would be a great experience for some kids from Harlem." She first told me this is a Art Gallery as if I did not know that. Why are there things in Harlem but not for US!! I told her this would be the kids first experience at an art gallery, it is called exposure and this is the perfect age. If anyone can recommend a different Art Galley please let me know.

She just opened, not a good move, Claire. The neighborhood will not be embracing you...

Carolyn Eufrazio-Traore then she got offended when I got offended by her reaction. I was so shocked to be treated like that in Harlem. I moved from Suffolk Long Island where that is the norm. I was thrown off guard because I did not expect to be treated that way in Harlem. Was it my adidas jogging suit? I was getting exercise while my daughter is in school.

Lisa Parham Jones I am really sorry that you experienced this. Art galleries are for everyone, especially kids of that age... but to be dismissed, nope. Unacceptable. I live nearby and trust that this kind of attitude will not be tolerated.

Hey Claire,

I feel so bad about the way we got off the phone. Please know that our relationship is important to me and I never want you to be hurting. You've been there for me in good times and bad and like you always say " we will deal it".

I want to have your statement out there as a proactive and protective measure for yourself and for all of us in the gallery.

Hi Claire ,

I reached out to Erica Hubbard for some advice and she has a good friend in Harlem who works for Biden's PR, and is an expert in crafting statements. Erica hates that this mess has happened too and offered to connect you to her friend if you are interested.

Hi Bisa - I have been so deeply hurt by our conversation that I needed some space. My feelings are still very raw but I would like to talk it out with you in the next couple of days.

That's totally understandable Claire. We probably both needed the air to clear and I'll talk to you soon.
